MERGER OF LEAD INTERESTS NEARING CONSUMMATION

Principal White Lead, Pipe and Sheet Lead Plants and Mines to Form Gigantic Trust.

Ryan-Whitney and American Smelting & Refining Interests Behind the New Concern.

T. LOUIS, Aug. 16 .- The Lead and | Whitney and American Smelting & scope of the merger will include most of the large white lead plants east of the Mississippi river, the principle pipe and sheet lead plants, a number of sheet and company manufacturing products in which lead forms one of the chief components. Included in the merger will be the Union Lead & Oil company, which was organized last year by the Ryan-Whitney coterie of capitalists, with a capital of $10,000.

The plans of the promoters favor a not less than $50,000,000. The papers will probably be filed in New Jersey during the next sixty days, although definite announcement of the status of the merger is looked for before the expiration of that time.

The lead producing properties in southeastern Missouri, Colorado and the Coeur D'Alene will not be included in this merger, but will be the basis of a second corporation, with a capitalization of not less than $25,000,000 to be consumpated after the manufacturing merger has been effected.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 10.—The Lead and Zin News will say tomorrow:
What will be the greatest lead combination in this country is now nearing its consummation. While its promoters are more than ordinarily reticent, it is definitely known that the scope of the merger will include most of the large white lead plants east much of the paper money thrust upon them in the last two days that they fear a shortage of silver change if the rain of paper money doesn't cease soon.

The cause of this phenomenal pour chants.

There are more $1 bills in Salt Lake than Carter had oats. At least it would seem so from the flood of greenbacks that have been presented to the merchants since the arrival of the eastern visitors. It is greenbacks, greenbacks, greenbacks everywhere, and not a silver dollar, seemingly. The restaurant and lodging house men have had so much of the paper money thrust upon them in the last two days that they fear a shortage of silver change if the rain of paper money doesn't cease soon. PASSING OF THE KNIGHTS.

Five Thousand Pythian Visitors

Have Stopped Over.

Nearly all of the Pythians who were expected to visit Salt Lake on their way from the east to San Francisco hav come and gone. It is estimated that 5,000 members of the order stopped here and saw the attractions of the city. This is a larger number than had been antici-nated. The visitors were received by the local committee, headed by Captain Son-nedecker. Yesterday the city was again thronged with the visiting Knights. Many of them,went to Saltair, and in the afternoon attended the tabernacle serv-jces.

lees.

A party of Pythians from Kentucky and Indiana, under the leadership of General Logan, pulled in over the Rio Grande Western yesterday and left shortly afterward for San Francisco, one carload of chivatic Knights remaining over to take in the sights until II o'clock.

Apostle John Henry Smith Expounds Mormon Doctrine to Strangers.

In the presence of an audience of between 4,000 and 5,000 people, many of whom were strangers within the gates of Sait Lake, Apostle John Henry Smith delivered what might be called a powerful sermon in defense of the Mormon doctrine, together with an explanation of some of the cardinal points. planation of some of the cardinal points

METHODIST MEETINGS.

State Conference Continued With Interesting Services.

BUGGY RIDERS HURT.—White driving rapidly in a road race two buggles smashed together at Sixth South and Fourth East streets last night, throwing the occupants to the ground and almost demolishing the buggles, Joseph Timpson, with Miss Florence Nelson, was driving in one of the buggles, while Charles Waite and a sister of Miss Nelson occupied the other. They were racing, according to the police, when one of the buggles struck a telephone pole and the other crashed into it. The occupants were thrown to the ground, and Florence Nelson was removed to her home, painfully injured. Her head was badly bruised and cut. Timpson was also injured and removed to police headquarters. Their wounds are not considered serious. The Methodists continued their conference yesterday with special Sunday services, which were largely attended. At 9:30 in the morning a conference love feast was held, led by Rev. George FIGHT ON A STREET CAR.—Disorder and panic reigned on car No. 59 of the Calder's park line last night when the car was passing along Third South street from Sixth to Second East. The car apparently had passed beyond the control of the motorman and was going at a rapid rate of speed, when a number of young men and women passengers attempted to stop its flight by pulling the rope on the cash register. The conductor attempted to stop the tinging of the bell, but was powerless, and the motorman, seizing the switch key, went to the rear of the car to the rescue of his companion. A fight ensued, in which some young women are said to have hit the car crew as often as they hit themselves. One of the women, whose name could not be learned, was struck on the head by the switch key and rendered unconscious by the blow. She was removed to her home, but her wound is not considered serious. Police officers endeavored to locate the participants in the fight, but were unsuccessful. There was a large attend-E. Jayne. There was a large attendance upon the service, and a rousing meeting was held. A stirring address was delivered by Mr. Jayne, and talks were made by others of the visiting ministers. W. Parker and E. ### MAX PETERS' FUNERAL

Prominent Citizen and Elk Laid to Rest With Tearful Ceremony By Elks and Woodmen.

With the solemn and impressive ceremony of the Elks, the remains of Max A. Peters, the last victim of McCasin's murderous aim, were laid to their final results and the last sad rites were laid to their final results and rites were performed in the lodge hall and were witnessed by many brother Elks and a large crowd of sorrowing friends. The ceremonies were particularly impressive, and every one who witnessed them was deeply affected. Tears of sorrow for the departed and sympathy for the bereaved ones left behind shown in almost every eye.

From 3 to 10 o'clock the remains were viewed at the late residence, and at the latter hour brief services were conducted by the Rev. J. L. Albritton of the First Methodist church. The family and close friends gathered about the casket, and the clerayman spoke words of praise for the departed and of comfort and hope to the saddened hearts of those from whose midst, the deceased was so suddenly smatched.

"Sorrows come upon us," said be, "when the departed and of comfort and hope to the saddened hearts of those from whose midst the deceased was so suddenly snatched.

"Sorrows come upon us," said he, "when even the comforting words of friends grate upon our feelings. When Max Peters left his home but a few evenings ago he was hale and hearty, and the prospects of life were bright and cheerful. But in a moment he fell a victim to a maniac's builet. It is but an evidence of the uncertainty of life and the need to be prepared to face our God at any moment." After the services at the house, the remains were removed to the Elks' hall, where the usual ritualistic services were recited. The casket of purple rested before the stand of the exalted ruler and was covered with beautiful floral offerings. About the platform were banked many more beautiful floral designs, prominent among which was an Elk clock of white and purple flowers.

The gallery and lodge room were filled with friends. The Modern Woodmen in uniforms attended in a body. While a funeral march was played, the Elks, according to their ritual, marched slowly about the casket and took their places upon either side. After the opening prayer a male quarrette sang "Lead, Kindly Light." After the further performance of the ritual the quartette again sang "The Vacant Chair." While a march was played the Elks passed by the casket and laid upon it sprays of ivy, the emblem of brotherly love.

An eloquent and feeling eulogy on the life of the deceased was delivered by Lecturing Knight Ben D. Luce. Mr. Luce spoke in the highest terms of the deceased as a member of the lodge and as a man in the business and social walks of life. The lodge, he said, had lost one whom every member delighted to honor and whose place could not be filled.

The services closed with prayer by Rev. J. L. Lellich.

After the services a procession over two blocks in length formed on State street, then marched on First South to Main and down Main to Second South, where cars were taken for the cemetery. Held's band headed the procession

RUNAWAY BOY FOUND.

Young Wells Did Not Follow the Circus, But Walked to Ogden.

Circus, But Walked to Ogden.

Eddie Wells, the 13-year-old boy who, according to a purile fake, left his home in this city Friday and followed Ringling's circus on its trip through the north, was located vesterday in Ogden. He hadn't been with the circus, but had left his home, and after a day's traveling afoot reached Ogden yesterday morning. Through the report of his having deserted his home to follow the circus, his family has been distracted and has used every means to locate the lad. Officers visited the circus in Ogden, and the authorities in Pocatello and other cities in the north were instructed to find the boy. All efforts were futile, for the reason that he wasn't with the circus and had no intention of following its glamor.

According to the officers, young Wells started out for a walk the day of the circus and lost himself, and went on and on until he was out of the city limits. He slept that night at a farm house and circus and lost himself, and went on on until he was out of the city lim He slept that night at a farm house stayed there most of the day, when again started on his trip. Most of time of the journey was spent along road, and on his arrival in Ogden yes
